In Dedication . . .

ROWENA HARVEY

All South Side pays tribute to Miss Rowena Harvey, our capable and hard-working journalism teacher and school publications supervisor, who has put our paper, The South Side Times, and our yearbook, The Totem, at the top. Since her arrival in 1922, the Times and Totem have consistently and continually been presented with the highest awards possible. All Archers join in thanking Miss Harvey for her long years of unfailing patience and work and wish her much happiness and success in the many years to come.

What I aspired to be,
And was not, comforts me
. . . I strove, made head, gained ground upon the whole!
. . . The future I may face now I have proved the past.

All Archers greatly mourned the death in June, 1952 of their beloved and greatly respected physical education instructor, Louis Briner. Mr. Briner, affectionately known as "Louie" to all, came to South Side in 1929 when he began at once to formulate his original and systematic intramural program which is now recognized as one of the best high school intramural systems in existence. The students and faculty of South Side have not only lost an able and competent teacher, but a wonderful friend.

LOUIS BRINER

And I shall thereupon
Take rest, ere I be gone once more on my adventure brave and new;
Fearless and unperplexed,
When I wage battle next,
What weapons to select, what armor to indue.

Here's Where You'll Find 'Em . . .

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF SOUTH SIDE HIGH SCHOOL
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

THE BEST IS YET TO BE.
Grow old along with me.
The best is yet to be, the last of life, for which the first was made. Our times are in his hand who saith,
"A whole I planned,
Youth shows but half;
trust God; see all, nor be

Seniors Experience Tears, Laughter Through the Years

Four years ago, 276 bewildered "small fry" entered this world of South Side and beheld a great magnificent future as members. As seniors, we pause to open our Memory Scrapbook and recall all the little things, the blushes, stammers, and gulps along with the rewards, honors, and laughs, which have made these last four years what they were.

Our freshman year was a mixture of fountain sitting and "femina, feminae, f. woman." The big step to sophisticated sophomores was a great event in our minds as was the "pie ala mode" decorations and the "can-can" line at our party "Dreamer's Holiday." We picked Jack Johnson as our president, and because of his stamina, we elected him the next two years also. David Talarico, vice-president; Don Rife, secretary-treasurer; Jim Craig, Dick Solaro, Carol Ann Schneider, social council; and Miss Barbara Leif and Mr. Robert Weber, sponsors, finished our choice of representatives.

Then with a sigh we became juniors. The sighs of relief, because we were upperclassmen, became sighs of satisfaction because our banquet "Show Boat" and our prom "Rendezvous in Paris" were successes. To help Jack and our sponsors, Miss Shirley Maloney and Mr. Jack Bobay, we chose Don Rife, vice-president; Dick Solaro, secretary-treasurer; and the social council, John Erwin, David Talarico, and Carol Bowser.

As everyone told us, our senior year whizzed by as if jet propelled. Again Jack and Don held the top positions. Carol Bowser qualified for the secretary-treasurer post and John Erwin, Carol Ann Schneider, and Dick Solaro composed the social council. We flew from the reception through the alumni dance, our banquet "As Time Goes By" and our jolly, unusual play "Arsenic and Old Lace." Of course the heavenly senior dance was a main page in our scrapbook. On Recognition Day we proudly displayed our honors.

Then, the school's job was completed. That is, for everyone except Miss Mary Graham and Mr. Jake Mclure, our sponsors. They led us through Baccalaureate and finally we transferred our tassels and walked into the world.

We pay tribute to thee Our South Side High School. You molded us spiritually, physically, and mentally. We will never forget the tears you gave us or the smiles which urged us on. You, your carriers of wisdom, your supporters of justice "will long remain in our hearts."

"Because this person has excelled in the four characteristics, Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Character which are required by the National Honor Society, I am happy to pin . . . . ." Forty-four members of the Class of 1953 heard a similar speech when they received their green and white ribbons signifying they had been tagged by the National Honor Society.

Their Ability Is Evident . . .

Upper left: The charleston is the rage! Treva Greenwalt's and Max Harrison's ability to maneuver this step has won them the title of the best dancers of the class.

Upper right: The radiant smile which Jack Johnson is portraying is a give-away. Of course, Jack was voted the boy with the all-around personality.

Bottom: Carol Bowser chose a good chauffeur when she picked the perfect gentleman, Jim Craig. Carol earned the title of the best girl athlete by her outstanding team work in GAA.

Our Choice Is Natural . . .

Upper left: Teaching Don Rife the fundamentals of public speaking is Ruthie Havens, the most talented speaker. Don holds two honors: those of the busiest senior and the best male athlete.

Upper right: John Erwin must be dreaming of the great band he might direct some day. A jack-of-all-music, John was voted the best musician.

Lower left: Carol Ann Schneider got so involved in her work that she found herself locked in the elevator. Besides being the personality plus girl, she also won the title of busiest girl.

"Yippee! We're through!" Dick Solaro expresses a Senior's feeling in the kitchen after the Senior Reception.

HOW GOOD TO LIVE AND LEARN.
Yet gifts should prove their use: Eyes, ears, took in their dole, brain treasured up the whole; should not the heart beat once,
"How good to live and learn?"

Juniors
. . . Poll Placers

The Class of 1954 can certainly be proud of the fine officers chosen to represent the entire junior class. The smiling faces at the upper left just go to show that the junior class is headed for bigger and better things. Seated left to right are Nancy Kierspe, social council; Charles Gibbs, secretary-treasurer; Miss Shirley Maloney, adviser; and James McGraw, vice-president. Standing are Susie Noble, social council; Mr. Morey, adviser; Martha Ritter, social council; and Fred Augspurger, president.

The polls proved quite favorable to Robert Henninger and Mary Long. In his most gentlemanly manner, Bob, chosen as the most perfect gentleman of the junior class is helping Mary out the door. Mary took honors as the most perfect lady of her class.

In the next photo down, it is easy to see why Jim McGraw and Nancy Kierspe were picked by the junior class as the busiest boy and girl. Jim with his most pleasing manner was also elected as the boy with the best personality.

Gazing at each other and seeming quite pleased are Janet Witte and Bill Patty. In the minds of their classmates they are the perfect couple to represent the Class of 1954.

Well, there you have it. It is not hard to see why the class of 1954 has come so far and made such a fine name at South Side. What fate holds for this class, only time will tell; but one can easily see that next year will be a great one if the above people are a sample of the next senior class.

Sophomores
. . . Class Favorites

Members of the sophomore class of 1955 have reached the half-way mark of their high school life and did so with flying colors. They staged the customary Sophomore Party, the second event of their two years, amidst umbrellas and rainbows to carry out their theme of "April Showers." The '55ers were the first class to have a "Freshman Frolic."

At the top are the very capable officers and advisers. Seated, left to right, are Dick Brantingham, president; Miss Edith Reiff, adviser; Jim Frey, social council; and Joan Hattendorf, vice-president. Standing are Julia Easterday, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Robert Petty, adviser; Roselyn Roof, social council; and Kenneth Scrogham, social council.

In the photo immediately following the officers are Jane Zeiler, Joan Nading, and Julia Easterday, who proved their popularity with the sophomore class. Jane was selected the best musician. Joan was voted the best speaker, and Julia was chosen the most perfect lady.

Seated on the steps of our Alma Mater are Jim Frey and Mary Val Crouse. They were voted the best boy and girl dancers.

The "personality kids," Nancy Evans and Dick Brantingham, in the lower left, offer their services to Bryan Boggess and Joan Hattendorf. Bryan and Joan were chosen the busiest boy and girl by their classmates.

In the lower right, Roselyn Roof and Tom Sites, left, tied Beverley Custance and Bernie Dunlap for the cutest couple honors.

. . . Pertinent Personalites

Immediately below those three are Phila Hurter and Phil Black, the cutest couple in the class.

Peggy Robinson, the best musician, and Paula McConnell, the top speaker, are the two cute gals second from the bottom on the right.

In the lower right are Luba Gouloff, the girl with the brightest personality, and Terry Miller, voted the boy with the best personality and also tied for the busiest boy title. In the same picture on the right, Deanne Wissner, the busiest Freshman gal, stands chatting with Bill Davis, who tied Terry Miller for being the busiest male among the Class of '56.

In the lower left, the most perfect gentleman, Jim Hearn, is shown opening the door for the class' two best athletes, Bob Blanton and Rilla Ellis.

Although the Kelly gridmen were unsuccessful in their bid for the city championship, they became "real champions" in the hearts and minds of South Side's students, faculty, and backers. A really impressive record of five wins, three losses, and one tie was chalked up by the boys under the expert guidance of head coach Marion Feasel.

The gridders gave it everything they had right down to the wire in one of the most hectic and jumbled city races on record, in which South recorded a 2 win-2 loss record, which gave them third position in the city race behind Central and the title holder, Central Catholic.

This year, South fielded one of the best defensive teams in the state and possibly the best Archerdom has ever seen. The Green held its opposition to 45 points in nine games, an average of less than a touchdown per contest. Four foes were whitewashed.

South traveled to Mishawaka to clash with one of the state's top teams and dropped their opener 20-7, the most points scored against them all season. Indianapolis Shortridge became South's first victim, as they were trounced 14-0.

The city series opener saw the Green completely outplay Central only to have a fluke pass interception cause victory to slip through their fingers. The Tigers won 7-0. Beginning to hit their stride, South ventured to the Steel City and battled four bruising quarters to a 0-0 deadlock with a husky Froebel eleven.

Jackson, Michigan, became the second feather in South's cap 6-0, before the squad reached their peak in the North-South encounter. The well-regarded Redskins found an inspired Kelly eleven in top form and were swamped 21-0 in the Green's best demonstration of the year.

Concordia salvaged only a touchdown the following Saturday when they were crushed 60-6. The Feaselmen saw their hopes for the city title shattered by a lone C.C. tally under the arc lights. A bad break late in the contest resulted in the 6-0 downfall of the Archers. South saved enough to down a game South Bend Adams club in the season's finale, 26-7.

Veteran Coach Marion Feasel fell short in his effort to cop a third city title in six tries, but instilled a championship caliber of football and sportsmanship in the Kelly crew. He was ably assisted in his efforts by Glen Stebing, Don Reichert, Jack Bobay, and Wayne Scott.

Big Don Rife, twice chosen most valuable gridder, was the mainstay of the Archer backfield. Running from the tailback slot, he consumed over a mile of yardage in his three years with the '52 season being the most productive.

Lugging the leather from the halfback posts were Dan Perrey, Jack Johnson, Kent Horton, and John Adamonis. The backfield was rounded out by quarterback Keith Saylor.

South's rugged forward wall, generaled by Jim Craig, was a large factor in boosting the Kelly's gridiron fortunes. Banging heads along with Craig were such stalwarts as seniors Mike Melchior, Paul Casterline, Darrell Blanton, Kaye Darby, and juniors Don Johnson, Jack Kern, Jim McGraw, and Dave Sutter. Congratulations on a job well done.

Backing the varsity gridders were a group of rugged reserves and freshmen who compiled winning seasons in their respective schedules. The reserves chalked up an impressive five win record plus a pair of ties. The frosh huskies started slow but improved to garner a three win two loss record.

The reserve team was composed mainly of outstanding prospects needing seasoning before qualifying for varsity action. This group won two contests with North Side and Concordia plus a pair of ties with Central Catholic. The freshmen posted wins over Decatur twice and New Haven while bowing to Central Catholic and North Side.

The 1952 grid campaign was indeed a winning effort from the viewpoint of the teams and the boys.

Cagers Battle for Even Break in Season

South Side's hardwooders marched through a season of ups and downs to gain an even split on their 20-game schedule. The Green netters were forced to take a third position in the city race chiefly because of double losses to local arch-rivals, North Side and Central. However, the Archer fans are quick to remember that a few bad breaks in important games made a mediocre season out of what could have easily been a great one. Such strong quintets as Muncie Burris, Indianapolis Shortridge, Mishawaka, Fort Wayne Central Catholic, and others became victims of South's better hardwood demonstrations. Coach Reichert, in his second season at Archerdom, carefully brought the boys to their peak late in the season only to lose a heartbreaker to Central in the first round of the sectional tournament.

The 1952-53 season saw the Green flooring a well balanced quintet. Scrappy Fred Augspurger racked up the most individual points with some fine shooting. The all-around play of Al McClure placed him a close second. The great rebounding and scoring of Don Johnson and Jack Kern played a big part in South's successes. The other regular berth was held down by fiery Jack Johnson, the team's playmaker and floorman.

Fiery Jerre McManama started the season in great style, injured an ankle, and returned after midseason to record some great pinch-hit performances. Dave Grieser, Darrell Blanton, and Bill Chavis all had their great moments at one time or another during the campaign. John Adamonis, Phil Kenner, and Gene Schmeling appeared in relief roles from time to time.

The reserve team recorded a fine 14 win, 3 loss record which included a double win over Central, a split with North Side, and victories over Central Catholic and Concordia.

The Frosh netters also posted a fine season's record after a slow start had put them on the losing side of the ledger.

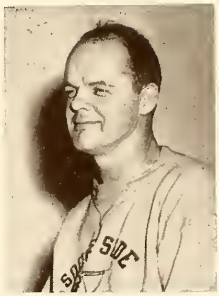
Cindermen Post Good Season Record



Coach George Collyer

A well-balanced group of underclassmen carried the Archers through a successful 1953 track season. Coach George Collyer, long-time Kelly cinder mentor, again came up with a hard-working, determined group which carried the Archer banner.

After the great performance of South's two entrants in the State meet, Warren Anderson and Dick Van Horn, Coach Collyer was faced with a highly inexperienced and youthful squad. After a slow start, they began to roll and many of the boys gained a great deal of prominence as the season aged.

Most of the boys will be returning next year, and the experience they have gained will be of top value. Sophomores Dick Brantingham and Norman Miner were the principal entrants in the 100- and 220-yard dashes. In the relays and 440-yard event, the mainstays were Terry Stoner, Dave Grieser, and Dave Grossman. Dick Pearson and Norman Miner carried the load in the hurdle events.

Senior Kaye Darby and Bill DeHaven brought down the awards for the Green in the 880-yard run. Roy Kern shaped up quickly and with Tom Knipstein's help garnered honors in the mile event.

High jumping standouts were Dave Sutton and Roger Anderson, brother of last year's triple threat standout. In the distance jump, Bill Chavis and Dennis McIntyre became George's dependables.

Lanky Don Johnson, sturdy Don Rife, and powerful Mike Melchior were South's chief representatives in the iron ball event. Bob Garrison and Allen Mead both came through with great performances in their senior year. In the relays, Coach Collyer did a lot of experimenting to gain the best foursome.

Intramural . . . Athletic Benefits Unlimited

South Side's intramural sports program is often taken for granted as many boys do not realize the opportunities our extensive program lays before them. Not only do these sports give all boys in South Side a chance to find athletic competition, but they also provide for relaxation and physical development. We can be especially proud of intramural sports at South Side since no other program in the city offers such a variety of activity or as much recognition to those who take part.

Mr. Louis Briner founded intramural sports at our school in 1929. From that time until his death last year, he added to and revised the program, forming the great IM set-up we now have. Mr. Briner introduced the three weight divisions, the more than twenty activities, the intramural letter award system, and many other factors contributing to the success of IM sports.

With the loss of this great founder and director, a new man had to be found to lead "mural" activities. It is a big job and it took a big man—big in character with an enthusiastic spirit and sincere interest—to fill this post. Mr. Clair Motz measured up to these standards with his highly successful first year as evidence of the capability of this new friend to all South Siders.

Fall activities were highlighted by the annual tag-football tourney in which Ben's Bombers emerged as "pigskin" champs, and intramural cross-country. Winners in the final cross-country run were Bill Chapman, Bill Bryan, and Walther Stroup. Rounding off the fall program were the tennis and horseshoe tourneys. Champions of that activity were Jack Ford, Nat Edwards, Dave Stratton, Bill Chapman, Bob Miller, and John Milnor.

the basketball tournament. The Gentlemen, led by top scorers Bill Edwards, Keith Saylor, and Norm Bender, gained championship honors after winning hard-fought contests against such teams as the Mighty Muffers and the White Owls. Meanwhile, Mike Melchior, Jack Harshman, Dale Hiler, and Tom Imel became handball champs.

Many other events including volleyball, the intramural track meet, the very successful wrestling program, and softball were completed, bringing a close to another year of intramural sports at South Side.

The 1952-53 season will be remembered as a successful year. The fine intramural tradition of twenty-four years was preserved through the efforts of Mr. Motz and the cooperation and spirit of South Side boys.

Miss Helen Pohlmeyer and Mrs. Alice Keegan help greatly in the success of G.A.A.

G. A. A. . . Girls' Athletic Association

The members of G.A.A. have experienced another enjoyable and successful year through participating in its many sports activities. This organization is a carry-over from the sports program in the regular gym classes. An average of 400 girls participate in its activities each week. Any South Side girl may join this club if she fulfils the only requirement which is to have all passing grades.

Each year, the girl with the highest number of points is honored by having her name engraved on a special placque. This year, the honor was bestowed on Carol Bowser. Other rewards are also given for high points. A numeral is awarded to the girl who earns 300 points. With 1500 points, a letter is presented, and with 2000 points, a gold pin.

G.A.A. was not only established for fun, but also to give to girls the opportunity to develop their talents, leadership and sportsmanship, and in general, to become better physically, mentally, and socially.

Also, battling to the finish in underclass basketball were the freshmen of Team 4. They were captained by Barbara Bowyer and are pictured in the left middle picture. They are, front row: Rebecca Brinkroeger, Gail Johnson, Rilla Ellis, Nancy Showalter, and Sharon Simmers; second row: Donna Jo Hoover, Mary Stuntz, Marilyn Moats, Martha Falb, Barbara Bowyer, and Gloria Shinn.

The next big event which followed in the G.A.A. date book this year was the annual recognition banquet, held on January 19. "Happy Days" served as the theme of this year's potluck-banquet and Miss Pauline Van Gorder, dean, was the main speaker at this event, which was full of fun and singing. At the close of the banquet, pins, letters, and numerals were presented. Gold pins were awarded to Phyllis Huffman, Luvonne Stewart, Carol Bowser, and Marjorie Smith. Those who received their letters are Kay Hill, Norma Meagher, Marlene Schmidt, Evelyn Smith, Marlene Stoops, Rosemary Tsiguloff, Beverly Berning, Barbara Black, Betty Westbrook, Marilyn Bender, Mary Breedlove, Charlene Galland, Nancy Gardt, Linda Kithcart, and Janice Schon.

Then, on the first day of spring, March 20, the annual Spring Show, "Rhapsody in Dance", was presented with everyone in the physical education department participating to make it a smash hit.

Finally, the girls went out for tumbling and then came track. To complete the season, the girls entered the baseball field to rack up more honors.

The Spring Show, "Rhapsody in Dance", portrayed the dances of various countries in colorful costumes and again was a success.

Tennis . . .

Golf . . .

Here are the boys who formed the nucleus of Archerdom's links team this spring. Despite the loss of veteran Ken Rodewald, the Kelly's managed to assemble a very balanced and successful team.

YOUTH SHOULD STRIVE . . .
As it was better, youth Should strive toward making than repose on aught found made . . . Add this to the rest, Take it and try its worth.

Philo . . . Meterites . . .

Under the direction of Mrs. Max Shambaugh and Miss Susen Peck, the members of Philo and Meterites enjoy poetry, novels, music, and drama. An opportunity to do creative writing is also offered to the girls. Meterites is open to freshmen and sophomores, while upperclassmen join Philo.

Each club sponsors a dance annually. The boys who attended Philo's "Touchdown Twirl this year elected Sally Gilbert as queen. Pictures of this dance are found on pages 98 and 99.

Lower right: Carol Timma, Gwen Hinton, and Betsy Waterfield dress up in '20's fashions to celebrate Philo's thirtieth anniversary.

Wranglers . . . 36 Workshop . . .

Wranglers encourages speech participation under the direction of Mr. Gene Moore. Members participate in contests at Howe Military School, Ball State Teachers' College, Purdue University, and within the club.

Miss Lucy Osborne and Mr. Marvey Knigge have led 36 Workshop in presenting excellent Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter assemblies, and the annual Talent Show. Programs are also given at the club's meetings every two weeks. Additional pictures of the assemblies can be found on Pages 100, 102, 104, and 108.

So-Si-Y . . . USA . . .

So-Si-Y activities include a Faculty Tea, selling senior name cards and school stationery, and helping to put on the Easter Assembly.

USA is So-Si-Y's little sister. Miss Olive Perkins and Miss Rose Mary DeLancey sponsor So-Si-Y, and Mrs. Grace Welty and Miss Mabel Fortney, USA.

Upper left: New members are being initiated into USA.

Lower right: Sharon Corson, Margie Lansing, Jackie Baltes, and Marie Bromer are shown playing a game for recreation after a So-Si-Y meeting.

Hi-Y . . . Freshman-Sophomore Hi-Y . . .

Hi-Y attained a little brother, Freshman - Sophomore Hi-Y, for a while this year. The big events of Hi-Y, with Mr. Robert Weber, sponsor, were the picnic with Philo, the Queen of Hearts dance, and the Best Girl banquet.

Service . . . Library . . .

The Service Club is very valuable because the members help to keep the school functioning smoothly by giving the teachers just what the name implies . . . service. The student also benefits from his association and work with teachers.

South Side's efficient library staff is made up of members of the Library Club, directed by Miss Emma Shoup.

Upper left: The potluck is the Service Club's one big event at which the Randolph-Jacobs Trophy was presented, this year to Betsy Waterfield.

Art . . . Home Economics . .

The Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. Ruth Fleck and Miss Edith Reiff, emphasizes the practical uses of art. The projects this year were ceramics and textile painting.

The Home Economics Club was organized this year with Mrs. Lozure Wolfgang as sponsor. Each member has a different project for the semester, such as sewing a garment or making a recipe file.

Camera . . . Math-Science . . .

Under the direction of Mr. John Becker, the Camera Club members study cameras, see movies, and tour various studios.

Math-Science, sponsored by Mr. Whelan and Mr. Sidell, is a group of students who have taken math or science. A speaker addresses the group each month on current scientific topics.

Lower left: Mr. Becker is explaining the workings of some cameras to Duane Bobeck, Eugene Redding, Ronnie Shultz, Louie Ditton, June Parks, Janet Hinman, and Dave Eitman.

Lower right: Mr. John Edgebert, of Capehart-Farnsworth, demonstrates a television set to Math-Science. (No television was available for this meeting. The picture was "dubbed" in.)

Lettermen . . . Rifle . . .

The envied members of the Lettermen's Club put on a successful banquet and dance each year. Don Rife was the president of the organization this year, aided by Mr. Ora Davis, the sponsor.

The members of the Rifle Club have received excellent instruction from Mr. Clarence Murray.

Upper left: The Lettermen and their coaches enjoy a potluck supper in the Greeley Room.

Conservation . . . Know Your City . . .

Two new clubs have had a good start this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Robert Weber and Mr. Jack Weicker. Mr. Weber's background in natural science has been of aid to him in informing the Conservation Club members about this field. The many interested students in Mr. Weicker's Know Your City Club are proof that his club has been a success.

Lower right: The Conservation Club listens to a discussion and demonstration on bird-houses presented by Miss Mabel Thorne.

Radio . . . Visual Education . . .

Mr. Malcom Hults' newly formed Radio Club has already become one of the most interesting in South Side. The club's purpose is to enable students to become radio amateurs and ham radio enthusiasts. Movies, tours, and speakers are enjoyed by the club members.

Those handy little people that operate the projection equipment for our movies are all members of the Visual Education Club. Mr. Ernest Walker has charge of this group.

Majorettes . . . Cheerleaders . . .

Without these two groups, South Side's games would not be the enjoyable events they are. The majorettes put on a delightful halftime show. Our cheerleaders led the fans in cheering the Archers on to victory. Mr. Robert Petty has charge of this group which has worked up many new yells with the band this year. These two clubs put on our pep sessions.

Lower right: Basketball season is here! Ready to cheer for the Archers are the yell leaders Frances Bagby, Nancy Showalter, Sharon Odier, Rilla Ellis, and Radka Gouloff.

Booster . . . 1500 . . .

What would we do without the Booster Club to sell us refreshments at our basketball and football games? This group, sponsored by Miss Rowena Harvey, Miss Gertrude Oppelt, and Miss Mabel Fortney, operates the concession stands.

Miss Harvey also is the sponsor of the 1500 Club, which is composed of all the publications workers who have earned 1500 points or over.

Upper left: Folding the Times on Wednesday afternoon are 1500 Club members Frances Smoley, Doris Slater, Rosalie Sheline, and Mary Long.

A Colorful Totem Depicts History of Colorful Years

Headaches, glued-fingers, tired limbs, and late hours were all forgotten; right triangles, slide rules, rulers, and cardboard were put on the shelf; the presses finished their last run; and only then did the yearbook workers slow down. Such was the life of the 1953 Totem staff, who raced in high gear from September right up until June to prepare this issue of your annual.

Excellence was our goal, and excellence we believe we have achieved, only through the cooperation of several thousand people — students, teachers, parents, engravers, pressmen, printers, binders, and many more.

Bound within this volume are stories of memories, captured in expert photography, that will serve to enlighten many a dreary day in our futures.

No particular theme was selected for the '53 Totem, for we believe that the book stands as a theme in itself, a symbol of four years of gaiety and sorrow, four years that will remain with us through an eternity.

Times . . . Tool for Hardworking Journalists

Through the years the students of South Side have published a school paper, The Times, of which everyone may be justly proud. This year, as in previous years, The Times was presented by Quill and Scroll with the International Honor Rating, the highest possible award, and the George H. Gallup award which is given to school papers that maintain an outstanding record year after year or that have provided outstanding service to the school.

The Times also received a rating of Medalist, the highest possible, from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

During the course of this year twenty-eight students were recognized for their outstanding work on publications by appointment to Quill and Scroll, honorary journalistic society.

Director . . . ROBERT DRUMMOND

Band . . .

"See you in the band room!" These are familiar words around school, especially in the vicinity of back center hall. Many, many musicians have thought of the band room as their home at South Side. Mr. Robert Drummond is the director and instructor of the band and orchestra.

Basketball and football games wouldn't be the same without the band to present a program. Whether the Archers win or lose, the band is always in there pitching, keeping up our school spirit. Their fine programs are a result of much hard work. Every Saturday afternoon during the basketball season, the band members, clad in jeans and shirts, practice for two hours. Some splinters have even punctuated the practices, when the members sat on the gym floor!

This year the group worked up several yells for the fans to do along with the music of the band. Much better and more enthusiastic participation from the fans resulted from these yells.

Orchestra . . .

The orchestra has been especially fine this year. The many varied selections played by the group added much to our music assemblies and the spring and winter concerts.

The excellent string ensemble has played for many outside clubs, teas, and banquets, besides the regular assemblies and some PTA meetings. A group of the outstanding musicians in the orchestra joined a similar group from the choir to form the Madrigal Singers and Players.

The City Music Festival was one of the big events of the band and orchestra this year. All of the band participated and a large part of the orchestra. Along with the stringed instruments, Mr. Drummond chose certain members to play brass, woodwinds, and percussion instruments in the Festival.

Choir Director . . . . Lester Hostetler

Choir . . .

The concert choir has just this year become the proud possessor of a nine-foot grand piano! This new addition to the choir room climaxes the growth of the choir since 1940, when it was started by Lester Hostetler.

In addition to the school programs given by the choir, such as music assemblies, the spring and winter concerts, holiday assemblies, and PTA programs, concerts are also presented to churches, civic, and social groups. Close to fifty outside concerts were given by the choir this year.

The soloists this year were Carol Timma and Carole Patberg, sopranos; Dave Gustafson, tenor; and John Moore, bass. Betsy Waterfield and Carole McClain were the accompanists. Sylvia Huss, as the head secretary, has been, as Mr. Hostetler calls it, his "right hand." She has taken charge of the attendance in class and at concerts, and keeps track of the points earned.

Sixteen of the outstanding choir members formed a group which Mr. Hostetler and Mr. Robert Drummond combined with a selected group from the orchestra. The Madrigal Singers and Players is the title given to this group, which has also given many church concerts. Every few years the choir sings in the City Music Festival with the other high school music departments in the city. This year, for the first time, the festival was held at the War Memorial Coliseum!

LASTS EVER.
All that is, at all, lasts
ever, past recall; Earth changes, but thy soul and God stand that was, is,
and shall be; Time's wheel runs back or stops.

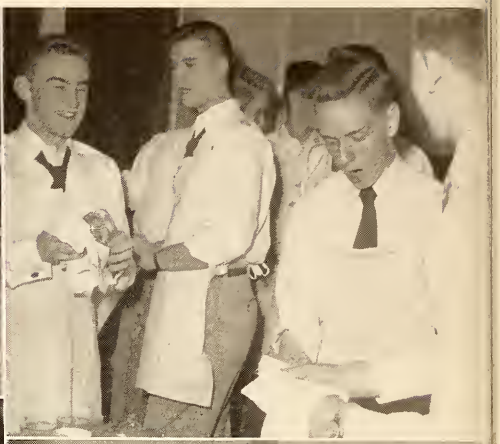
"It opens this way, Sue." Mary Livingston shows her how at the Philo-Hi-Y picnic . . . At the Times picnic, Sherry Palmer, Jaymee Griffiths, and Barbara Stobaugh wait for Dave Gustafson to finish grabbing, and Bryan will still want more. . . . "Did she really say that, Martha?" Beverly Feber, Janice Plattner, and Paula Richardson think so. . . . Alumni are back for a home game, and Booster Club profits. . . . Looks like we scored again, Jim. . . . "You do it like this, John." Jim Suelzer diverts attention at Wranglers' picnic.

Yippee-yi-yo! Adams of South Bend is branded for a loss by the hard riding Archer machine. . . "Got a hot foot, Carol?" Several Senior "ladies" kick up their shoes at the Philo-Hi-Y picnic. . . Mr. Weber caught the hamster right away though, Mr. Yoder. . . . "Golly, Colleen, it never stays down anyway; and besides, I've got hairpins in here somewhere." . . . . "Five foot nine, eyes that shine." Betsy and Joan at the Philo-Hi-Y picnic—What's that in the corner? . . . . "Hey, my toes are freezing!" More Senior lassies at the North Side game.

"O boy! Hot buns on hamburger." Guess what picnic this is....Jack Johnson never had more fun in his life. Philo's "Touchdown Twirl" queen Sally Gilbert, with her attendants, Barbara McWhorter, Betsy Waterfield, Rosanne Miller, and Carol Schneider.... Mr. Hults gives good news on Back-to-School night.....Lightfooted football heroes star at Philo's "Touchdown Twirl."....We journalists are always eating somewhere. This time in the Greeley Room at a circulation party....A song is in the air at the Senior PTA Tea.

Freshmen have a good time at their party . . . Marks Camera Shop is the scene of bustling activity while a record vote is cast on November 4 . . . . "Just a little more this way, now." Jim Reed, National School Studios photographer, adjusts Roger Glass' head a little to the right . . . . "Bring up another case, Wayne." Halloweeners enjoy free Cokes at the PTA sponsored dance . . . . Judy Hicks thrills the class of '56 with a dashing Spanish twirl . . . . More Archer couples glide through the goal posts at Philo's Touchdown Twirl.

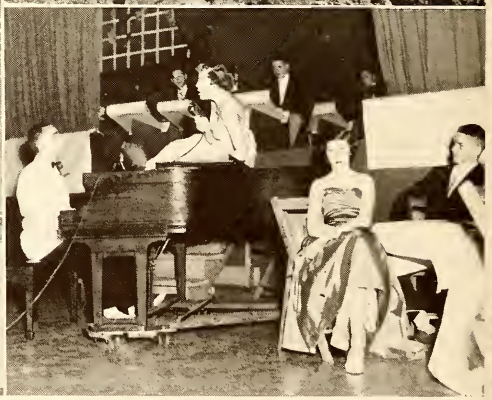


History is depicted in the Thanksgiving assembly . . Looks like the boys were really "living it up" at the Senior Reception. Bob Nern, Dick Solaro, and Dick Turner are the "ladies" in the kitchen . . ."He's a pretty funny guy," says Dave Crebb, meaning Don Forks of course. Manny Zinn makes it a threesome at the Junior Banquet . . . The lineup at the Senior Reception. Carol Schneider and John Erwin welcome Mr. Seitz . . Oh goodness, Georgia, what is the matter? Junior gals at their banquet . . . "As we honor the dead." The Armistice part of the Thanksgiving assembly.

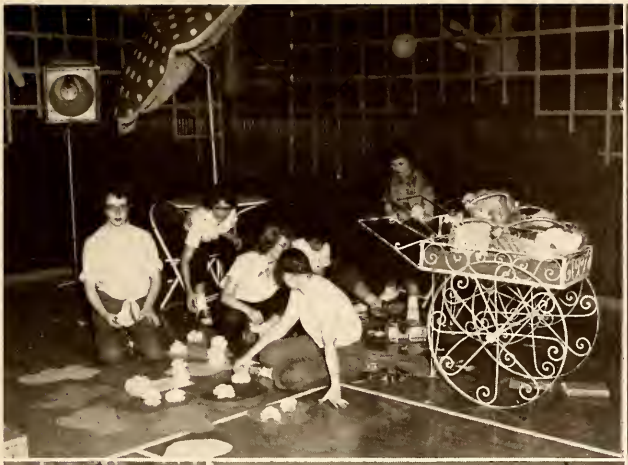
The "elite" pose for a picture at the Senior Banquet. . . These boys seem to be more interested in eating than posing. They had a better time too. . . It appears as if these might be gentlemen for they are waiting patiently for Russell Mumma to be served. . . Here are the women and are they ever enjoying the table of boys next to them . . The speakers' table no less. Miss Graham is holding the attention of Dave Stratton and Carol Schneider. . Everyone will remember Betsy Burchard "As Time Goes By" at the Senior Banquet.

"We wish you a Merry Christmas." Hostetler's "Glee Club" could be heard around the school before Christmas vacation. . . .Theme reading is so much fun. Mr. Moore must have one of Bob Rossiter's themes. . .Welcome home, Alumni. Seniors decorate for the dance held during Christmas vacation. . .A serious portion of the Christmas assembly portrays the Nativity. Joe King and Ellen Hoham are Joseph and Mary. . Freshman-Sophomore Hi-Y'ers visit Galbreath Television Studios. . ."Santa" John Erwin really made a hit with his "sleigh" at the Christmas assembly. Nice dolls he's carrying, too.

Wow! What a cheering section this is. Faculty members cheer Archers "On to State"....An "elite" gathering at Ila Jean Stiver's open house after the Senior Banquet....Ida and Mabel kept Miller's in order during our lunch periods, bless their souls....Mr. Null, Miss VanGorder, Miss Perkins, and Miss Hodgson enjoy everything at the Quarter Century banquet....Bill Chavis and Bill Edwards "clean up" on midterm locker day....More "partyites" at Ila Jean Stiver's open house. My how those seniors love to "party."



"She got straight A's too, Mrs. Trader." Miss Maloney glows over Joann Weddle at the N.H.S. banquet. That goes there and this goes here. What for? The Sophomore Party, of course. Hey girls! This is fun. More decorations for the Class of '54 party. Say, this is beautifying the grounds? The "trench" job is being done by Les Cox, Gary Weiss, and Jim Craig. The boys of Hi-Y pose at Gettysburg on their trip to Washington. Carol Meads sings "You'd Better Go Now," but Mike doesn't want to. "Beckon of Broadway" was the theme of the '52 Talent Show.



The juniors held their "Rendezvous in Paris" on May 2, 1952 . . Flowers for the old French peddler to be put in the old Frnech cart. . .Russell Mumma, Kenny Krick, and John Mitchell decorate the bandstand. . . .Dave Shookman, Dick Lehman, and Dick Carrell lead the parade of waltzers to "LaVien Rose". . . Don Rife, Neal Thomas, Dave Talarico, Keith Saylor, and Norm Bender lead their "jeunes filles" to the same song. . .The "cabaret" in the Cafe de l'Ecole: Johnny Jenkins serves drinks for Don Ault and his date, Jane Harrold. . . . . Kenny Krick, Ellen Hoham, Arlou Spindler, and Dick Solaro gather souvenirs from "Rendezvous."

"Look this way seniors, here are your queens." Rita Pierce and her court, Jackie Hurt, Flossie Fairfield, Jane Hattendorf, and Pat Dobson, present a pretty picture on Ivy Day . . Dr. Carl S. Winters at Commencement ceremonies enumerates five principles of happy living. . . . Jim Davis, Carol Loriot, and Rita Pierce add more lilies to the pond at the Senior Dance, and Ronnie must be holding up the moon. . . . Jim Swank plants the traditional "green stuff". . . Dancers at last year's Senior Prom. . . . Picture of Karen Sue Walker and more flowers.

A queen in several ways. Illustrious Louis Mangels crowns Rita Pierce on Ivy Day. . . . "Flash! Knapp digs to China. Gets sendoff from friends." Miss DeLancey's senior homeroom plants a bush on "redecorating day" last spring. . . Picture of popular people. "Totem Day" is enjoyed by all S.S.H.S. . . . "Sign here please." Janet Helms and Rita Pierce make their mark on recognition ceremonies. . . . Seniors "en masse" for Recognition Day honors. . . "I'm going to college, Elmira. How are you going to get your husband?" A few seniors anticipate the future after recognition ceremonies.

Mrs. Shambaugh certainly loves her tea. The head table at Philo's St. Patrick's banquet. . . . Pretty legs ramble down the street in last year's Ivy Day parade. . . . "Shore an' begorra, it's a day fit for the Irish," several lassies exclaim at Philo's banquet . . . One, two, three—kick! Fullback Don Rife plods through a dance routine with his own Georgia Rider. . . . Careful, boys, one slip and the Alma Mater is in shambles. A scene from the cyclotron works in "Oak Ridge, Ind." . . . . "What's on the program next?" Wranglers Banquet was enjoyed by everybody at Ted's table.

"Oooh! You shouldn't have done it." Miss Harvey well deserves the desk set given to her on her birthday by the Times staff. . . . No, time hasn't reversed itself, we're only reminiscing as some '53 Seniors sign the Totem '49er. . . . Our Cyclotron experts leave an I.U. science building. . . . Whoops! Time slipped again, and we see the Roman banquet held in 1949 . . Karl Wingler demonstrates the player's file at "Baseball's Little Blue Book" located here in Fort Wayne. . . . Senior girls "confab" at noon in the Times room.

Blest be the tie . . .

. . . . that binds this book and our hearts to the warm gaiety and often time cold tears of our never-to-be-forgotten years at Archerdom. Through the years, we safely say, this book will be opened and reopened, the dust wiped off frequently, and these memorable pages leafed through until age itself settles down upon the page corners and binding. Only then will the book be shelved, soon, however, to be brought out when a classmate drops by for reminiscing.

Thanks . . .

. . . . to you, South Side, for providing us with years of memories that have been assimilated in this 1953 Totem.

. . . . to Miss Harvey, whose patient and considerate counsel has guided us through the year.

. . . . to Robert Lauer of the Lincoln Engravers for his expert assistance with the layouts.

. . . . to Harky, Irish, Paul, and Don in the press room.

. . . . to Rex Conn and the Jefferson Studio for a great job on the Seniors.

. . . . to God for pulling us through this year in pretty good shape . . . .
